SENTENCING EXCERPT

BEFORE: The Honorable William G. Young,
District Judge

1 Courthouse Way
Boston, Massachusetts

October 13, 2005

1 THE COURT: Mr. Ramon Villa, in consideration of 2 the sentencing factors enumerated in 18 United States Code,
3 Section 3553(a), the information from the United States
4 Attorney, your attorney, the probation office, and yourself,
5 this Court sentences you to be committed to the custody of 6 the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 42
7 months; thereafter, the Court imposes upon you no fine due
8 to your inability to pay a fine, four years of supervised 9 relet's, and a $100 mandatory special assessment.

10 The special conditions of your supervised release
11 are that you not commit any other crime nor illegally
12 possess a controlled substance. You shall submit to one
13 drug test within 15 days from the release from imprisonment
14 and two periodic drug tests thereafter not to exceed 104
15 tests per year.

16 You shall submit to a collection of a DNA sample as 17 directed by the probation office. You are prohibited from 18 possessing a firearm, destructive device or other dangerous
19 weapon. You're to participate in a program for substance 20 abuse as directed by the probation office, and you are 21 required to contribute to the costs of services for such 22 treatment.

23 If order deported you are to leave the United 24 States not to return without the prior permission of the 25 Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security.

1 You shall use your true name and you are prohibited
2 from using any false identifying information.

3 Let me explain that sentence to you, Mr. Villa.
4 This didn't just happen. This isn't something you didn't 5 want to get involved in. This is an intentional commission
6 of a most serious offense. If you're in denial of that 7 basic fact there's a very real risk that you may be back
8 before the Court again. You are guilty of a most serious
9 intentional offense against the laws of the United States.

10 There's only one reason why your sentence is not 11 more than five years in custody. And that reason is once 12 you were arrested you did everything right. And I do take 13 that into account.

14 I do accept that you love your daughters very much.
15 But if you're sorry for anything, you're sorry you got 16 caught.

17 This is a just and a fair sentence. You have the 18 right to appeal from any findings or rulings this Court has 19 made against you. If you appeal, should you appeal and 20 should your appeal be successful in whole or in part, the 21 case will be resentenced before another judge.

22 You will receive custody from March 31, 2004, for 23 the time you have -- you shall receive credit for the time
24 you have remained in custody since March 31, 2004.

25 He's remanded to the custody of the marshals.

1 Thank you. We'll recess.

2 THE CLERK: All rise.
